Person to Person and the National Association of Letter Carriers Call On All Residents to Support the Largest Local Food Drive of the Year

The Stamp Out Hunger (Postal) Food Drive Returns to Darien, Norwalk, Wilton, and Stamford After Two-Year Hiatus

Darien, Norwalk, Wilton, Stamford, CONN (May 6, 2022)

— Person to Person (P2P) is participating in the National Association of Letter Carriers Stamp Out Hunger (Postal) Food Drive on Saturday, May 14, 2022. After a two-year hiatus due to the pandemic, Stamp Out Hunger is back! All three P2P food pantries are collaborating with local post offices to help re-stock the P2P pantries, making it easy for all residents in lower Fairfield County to participate. The need for food assistance has never been greater. The economic toll of the pandemic continues to impact residents in Fairfield County, leaving many of our neighbors struggling to make ends meet. Rising inflation heightens the financial struggle facing low-income residents.

“The National Association of Letter Carriers (NALC) is thrilled to be partnering with P2P again for the Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive,” shared Dominick Frattaroli, Vice President, Branch 60, NALC. “While it’s great distributing the Stamp Out Hunger grocery bags the week before, it’s even better picking up the bags on May 14th, full of food donations!” Dominick is pictured here with Food Bank of Lower Fairfield County Executive Director Kate Lombardo and Person to Person CEO Nancy Coughlin at the USPS West Avenue sorting facility in Stamford.

In the last year alone P2P has distributed enough healthy groceries for more than TWO MILLION meals. Over the last two years, P2P has distributed an astounding 78% more food through its food pantries in Darien, Norwalk, and Stamford and its Door2Door home delivery program. The only way P2P can sustain this level of service is with support from our community with food donations and monetary donations. The Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive 2022 will be a significant contributor to re-stocking the P2P food pantries.

“We need everyone who is able to donate food on May 14 to do so,” encourages P2P CEO Nancy Coughlin. “For many of the families we serve the food they receive at P2P is the foundation of their meals. Please help us make this year’s Stamp Out Hunger the biggest yet with a generous donation of healthy food.”
